5. MCI Advertisements	August-September	50%
Students can pick up Ad forms from the Band Room, or they can print them from the web site. Solicit ads from your family, friends and area businesses. Money and form due date will be announced. Credit is issued to student accounts after the MCI contest is held. Programs from prior years are available to use as a selling tool.
6. Pizza Kits and Cookie Dough	October	40-45%
Brochures are delivered from the band room, orders are taken and turned in by due date. Money is due 7 days after product is delivered. Because this is a frozen food sale, it is important that you note the delivery date and make sure you will be available to pickup product.
7. Home Interiors Candles	September-October	40%
Brochures are delivered from the band room, orders are taken and turned in by due date. Money is collected up front and must be turned in with order. Great gift ideas for the holidays.
8. Thanksgiving and Christmas Fruit Sale	November and Dec.	40%
This is our biggest fundraiser of the year. McGavock is known for the quality of the fruit. Fruit is picked up on Saturdays. Please note the pick up date and times before placing an order. It is very important that fruit be picked up on the designated date and delivered quickly.
9. Poinsettias	December	$5.00 per Plant
Fresh from a local grower, McGavock offers some of the most beautiful plants around. Offering includes white, red and pink in two sizes. Money is due 7 days after delivery of product.
10. Mail-Well	All Year	Varies
At various times through out the year we have the opportunity to stuff envelopes for various payments amounts. The amount is determined by the complexity of the job. Mail-Well opportunities are announced on the website. Space is limited so everyone must sign up. Details will be announced on the McGavock Band website.

Profits will not be posted to a students account until all monies are collected. Other opportunities may be added throughout the year. All past fundraisers must be paid in full to participate.
